FUNDRAISER PLANNED FOR QUEEN OF HEAVEN $11,000 prize drawing & casino games

Queen of Heaven Home School Guild presents the Casino & Sweepstakes Night, on Saturday March 24, 2012. Mark your calendars now & plan on attending this all new event combining the best of the Fall Sweepstakes and the Vegas Night event. The Casino & Sweepstakes Night will have grand prize drawings totaling $11,000 (winner need not be present) and fun-filled Vegas style gaming, carnival games, food concessions, bar, Chinese Auction, raffles & the popular Lucky Duck! Tickets are just $30 per person and include admission to the event, entry in the cash drawings ($11,000 in prizes!!), food & drinks! Tickets will be on sale through Queen of Heaven School families, and will be available at the rectory. This is an 18 and over event. Donations are currently being accepted for gift cards, bottles of wine & liquor and other auction items.

"This is the one big event of the year for our Home School Guild," said Dale McCormick, president of the guild. "We are proud that our school offers very reasonable tuition for our families, but the truth is the cost of tuition does not cover the cost of a private education. We offset that with our fundraising efforts and support from our parish. We are really hoping the community comes out and joins us for this fun filled night. We have plenty of high end auction items, black jack, dice and wheel games, great food and drinks, something for everyone."

For ticket information contact the school at 674-5206.
